REPLACES POLICY

November 2018

INTRODUCTION

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) deals with access to official documents and gives individuals or organisations the right to request information from any public authority. The Information Commissioner's Office has produced a Model Publication Scheme which sets out the classes of information which must be available to the public (view ICO Model Publication Scheme). There is no specific requirement as to how the information is to be available and, as Goostrey Parish Council has a website, the majority of the information is provided through this medium. The Information Commissioner's Office website offers further guidance on the Freedom of Information Act at <https://www.ico.gov.uk>

CLASSES OF INFORMATION

1. Who we are and what we do

Organisational information, locations and contacts, constitutional and legal governance This will include names of Councillors, roles e.g. Chairman of the Council, Chairmen of committees of the Council; Council structure; staffing structure; locations and accessibility details and staff contact details. All available on the website, Council office, and on Cheshire East Web site and on the public notice boards in Goostrey

2. What we spend and how we spend it

Financial information relating to projected and actual income and expenditure, tendering, procurement, contracts and financial audit. Precept request and Budgets are on the website, income and expenditure (including grants given and received) available in the minutes. Financial Regulations are available on the web site and from the Parish Council office. Viewing the annual return is available by appointment at the office; details are posted on the public notice board during the period when electors are permitted to exercise their rights to view the annual return

3. What are priorities are and how we are doing

Strategies and plans, performance indicators, audits and inspections and reviews. These include the Annual report to the Annual Parish Meeting and policy statements issued by the Council and responses to consultation papers. These are available in the minutes which are published on the web site or by visiting the Parish Council office

4. How we make decisions

Policy proposals and decisions. Decision making processes, internal criteria and procedures, consultations. Through the minutes and newsletter.

5. Our policies and procedures
